What is a Catholic Education?

Catholic education is education fully rooted in the truths of Christ and His Church. Our students study Catholic theology, attend Mass, have regular access to the Sacraments and are mentored by teachers who foster a deep love of Jesus.

What is Classical Education?

Our students are trained in the trivium and move through three stages: grammar, logic, and rhetoric. The goal of classical education is to train students to become self-learners and seekers of the truth. To learn more about 'What is Classical Education' take 5 minutes and watch one of our informative videos on the topic filmed with Dr. Constance Nielsen. The video can be found at <https://ambroseacademy.org/academics/what-is-classical-education/>.

Why Latin?

- Latin aids in the study of the Romance languages; enhances a student’s ability to express himself well in English; hones logical and organizational thinking skills; and assists students who continue in science, medicine and the humanities and come across Latin terminology.
- “Learning Latin has improved my grammar skills in writing in English and I also see it as a great advantage for myself in the pursuit of a future career in medicine, since a lot of medical terms have their root in Latin.” – Mariana Antonio Serrano, Class of 2021
- “Learning Latin has taught me how to problem solve and quickly apply common rules to understand new situations and contexts. Many Latin words build off others, so I have learned to take a step back when I encounter something unfamiliar and use information that I already know to discover something new. Latin has also helped me as a musician. Singing in different languages is easier after learning Latin pronunciation and I can better understand some of the terms I come across in my music.” – Naomi O’Leary, Class of 2021

Why does St. Ambrose Academy have a uniform policy?

- Uniforms create a mind-set for learning in our school and set the tone for the expected behavior of students within our classrooms.
- Uniforms teach students to dress appropriately for their work in the world.
- Uniforms also allow our community of learners to focus on the dignity of each person encouraging us to see one another through the eyes of Christ.
- A general overview of the types of uniforms worn at St. Ambrose Academy can be found on our website.

How does a small school like St. Ambrose Academy provide opportunities for its students?

- In a small school like St. Ambrose Academy, every student is valued as a unique child of God. Within St. Ambrose Academy's classical curriculum, students are continually challenged to grow as independent thinkers and search for the truth. Daily, St. Ambrose Academy students are encouraged to immerse themselves in each class discussion, to ask questions, to solve problems and to consider their purpose in the world. This style of education forms leaders organically – leaders willing to take risks as they find their own path to greatness.
- Small schools encourage participation in extracurricular activities, athletics, and community services. Within the walls of St. Ambrose Academy, it is common to see the fall Volleyball Player in the Spring Musical while participating in Debate Club and serving on Student Council.
- Our liberal arts classical curriculum gives students the academic foundation needed to be pursue any field of study they feel best suited to. Our graduates have been accepted to over 60 institutions of higher education across the United States. Our graduates are engineers, nurses, chemists, teachers, military officers, artists, musicians, physical therapists, computer software designers, psychologists, priests, religious sisters, lawyers, mothers, fathers and so much more!
